Objective:	The Fund's investment objective is to seek long-term growth of capital.
Strategy:	The Fund's primary investment focus, under ordinary circumstances, is on domestic and foreign equity securities of companies aligned with the Fund's investment theme of innovation. The Adviser defines "innovation" as the introduction of new technologically enabled products or services capable of potentially altering global paradigms. According to the Adviser, relevant companies within this theme are those relying on or benefiting from the advancement of new products or services, technological enhancements, and progress in scientific research across artificial intelligence ("Artificial Intelligence Companies"), automation and manufacturing ("Automation Companies"), and the expanding utilization of shared technology, infrastructure, and services ("New Internet Companies"). To fulfill its investment objective, the Fund has the flexibility to invest extensively in privately placed or restricted securities, such as Rule 144A securities, which are privately placed securities bought by qualified institutional buyers. Additionally, it can invest in illiquid securities and those lacking a readily available secondary market, including those issued by private companies. These issuers might not have registered securities or be obligated to report periodically under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Fund can invest in such securities without constraints. Presently, it anticipates allocating the remaining assets to publicly traded securities.
